

EXPRESS REGRET
AT MASSACRECarrancista Officers Express Sorrow Over Santa Ysabel Horror.

Nuevo Laredo, Mex., Jan. 14.—Carrancista officials at Queretaro very deeply regret the murder of the American mining men by Villa bandits in Chihuahua, according to advices from that city which add that the demand of the United States for the punishment of the murderers has been presented by consul Stillman to Gen. Carranza.

Official comment from Carranza was lacking but other officers of the de facto government are quoted as saying the murders were due to the premature entry of the Americans and other foreign mining men. The murders, they say, were also due to Gen. Villa's animosity to the United States as a result of the recognition of Carranza.

Steps have been taken to pursue the bandits, it is reported, from Queretaro, and every effort will be made to capture and punish them.

FUNERALS OF THE VICTIMS ARE HELD

The body of Thomas Johnson is being held pending news of relatives.

The body of Wallace Monday.

The funeral services of W. J. Wallace will be held at 10 o'clock Monday morning from the chapel of the undertaking parlors of J. J. Kuster & Co. The services will be under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity, and interment will be made in the Masonic plot at Concordia cemetery. Relatives of Mr. Wallace earnestly request that no flowers be sent. Mrs. Wallace is a sister of Mrs. R. P. Kyle of 1005 East Rio Grande street, and has been living with her little daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kyle. Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Kyle are Tombstone, Ariz. girls, their maiden names having been Wolcott.

To Be Buried Here.

Funeral services of J. W. Woon, another of the victims, will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the local undertaking parlors, 308 Texas street. The services will be conducted under the auspices of the local Masonic lodge, while interment will be made in the Masonic Concordia cemetery.

Acting upon the advice of relatives, the body of R. H. Simmons will be shipped to El Paso, Texas, this afternoon by the Peak undertaking company. His mother lives there.

The Elks Will Be in Charge.

The remains of J. E. Coy will be shipped to El Paso, Texas, this afternoon by the Peak undertaking company. The remains of Alex. Hall have been wired orders that his body be sent to Douglas, where a wife and children reside. It will be sent tonight.

Coy's wife first ordered his body interred here by El Paso lodge of Elks, but later Elks lodge arranged to have the body sent there for interment as he is a member of the Elks lodge.

All day crowds filed past the remains of the victims at the local undertaking parlors to view the remains. It was necessary to have police at each of the undertaking parlors and to close the doors frequently because of the crowds.

Double Funeral.

Simple but impressive funeral services for Maurice Anderson and Ernest L. Robinson, two of the 12 Americans murdered by the Mexican bandits at Santa Ysabel, were held jointly at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the church of St. Clement, Rev. Henry Easter met the caskets at the door of the church and preceded them up the aisle to the foot of the chancel steps, reciting the hope inspiring sentences of Christ, "I am the resurrection and the life, whosoever believeth in me shall live, and he that believeth in me shall never die." The casket containing the remains of Mr. Robinson, completely covered with beautiful flowers, was brought in first accompanied by the pallbearers, who were J. M. Romagny, J. B. Gwin, Dr. J. A. Rawlings, Dr. Irving McNeill, Charles Becker and Joe Wood. The casket was followed by the widow of the murdered man and a little group of his closest friends. Following them the flower covered casket containing the body of young Anderson was brought in by the pallbearers, who were Dr. H. H. Fields, James Ott, Charles Quailley, Chester Duma, George Hillary and Henry Seamon.

Parents Overcome.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Anderson and their three sons, Paul Anderson, Rowland Anderson, Jr. and Joe Anderson, followed with a group of their closest friends. The brief, impressive service of the Episcopal church was read by Rev. Mr. Easter, the choir in full vestments softly chanting, "Lead Kindly Light." The Lord's prayer was said and the creed with his belief of immortal life was repeated. The while the choir sang "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," the minister led the way from the church to the waiting hearse without.

Crowds of Men.

The church was thronged with the friends of the two men, and many of the county and city officials. Practically all of the refugee American colony from Mexico were present and the waiting automobiles outside of the church lined the streets about the church. The majority of those attending the funeral service were men. The interment was at Evergreen cemetery where the solemn burial service of the Episcopal church was pronounced by Rev. Henry Easter and the bodies committed to their graves.

Both graves were completely hidden under the numerous and beautiful floral offerings of the friends of the deceased.

Capt. W. D. Greet and several police officers were stationed outside the church preceding the service and among the congregation during the funeral.

Dance Postponed.

In respect to the victims the weekly dinner dance of the Toltec club was omitted Thursday night. It will be held next Thursday night.

The 6th district court adjourned Friday in respect for the dead.

Will Contain Details of "The World of White" Which Begins Monday

OUR preparations for this big white event have been made on a large scale and more elaborately than at any previous time. Hundreds, yes, thousands of beautiful undergarments, purchased especially for this sale will be attractively priced—thousands upon thousands of yards of dainty laces and richly designed embroideries will be here to choose from—the counters in the white goods and linen sections will be piled high with just the fabrics you will need for summer wear, and the linens with which to stock up your linen closet. The Basement Store, too, offers its quota of exceptional values in domestics and undermuslins for women and children. A very special feature of this event will be the Advance Showing of White Waists and New Spring Corsets—all 1916 models. By taking advantage of the offerings of this event you have "The Popular's" splendid stocks to select from while they are at their best—all new and fresh from the makers.

Genuine
Values--
And Others

IT is not always a wise thing to judge a bargain by the value quoted. It is a regrettable fact that many stores are not particularly scrupulous about the values they place on the goods they sell. Therefore, it is well to investigate, and to rely as much upon your own judgment as to the value of the goods as upon the store's assertions.

This month our store abounds with genuine bargains. Seasonable, desirable merchandise of all kinds is reduced in price in order to effect a clearance. And please remember that the values placed on the bargains we offer are not overestimated a single penny. The actual savings allowed are sufficiently remarkable.
